

Arigo STM Core

Makes global sourcing easy and affordable for any size business.

- Manage sourcing for softlines, hardlines, imports and exports in one system.
- Make real-time decisions when bids, orders, or shipments are out of tolerance.
- Drive collaboration between merchants and suppliers to deliver the right products at the best price.

STM Core masks the complexities of global sourcing for softlines and hardlines in one system. Pre-configured templates and workflows speed data entry and automate sourcing processes for unprecedented responsiveness across the entire supply chain. STM Core makes it easy to manage vendor profiles and to initiate RFQs. Automatically alert internal teams and external partners when bids, orders, or shipments are out of tolerance on any dimension. Event milestone tracking makes it easy to know where your goods are and to make real-time decisions when problems occur.

STM Core makes global sourcing easy and affordable for any size business. The browser-based user interface drives rapid adoption. Flexible licensing options and a modular architecture let businesses scale the system to fit business needs. Add Advanced Modules with deeper functionality to extend information and business processes across the entire product lifecycle. With an extensive library of pre-configured workflow templates and best practices, Arigo STM Suite can be deployed in weeks instead of months—for fast Return on Investment (ROI).

STM Core provides a complete set of tools and workflows that make global sourcing easy for any size business.
